

Anna Nesterova

Chairperson of Board of Directors Global Rus Trade.

Born 25 of April 1983 in Moscow.

Ph.D. in Economics.

In 2020, Anna graduated with a Master's degree in World Economy from Moscow State Institute of International Relations.

In 2006, Anna received a degree in Finance and Credit from the Academy of Labor and Social Relations.

Before 2015 Anna was engaged in the implementation of projects in the field of finance. In 2008 she founded the investment company “Center Capital” with turnover about 40 bln rubles a year.

In 2015, Anna founded Global Rus Trade - the leading Russian platform for cross-border e-commerce.

Anna represents Russia in the BRICS Business Council Working Group on Digital Economy and is the Chairperson of the Russian Chapter of the BRICS Women’s Business Alliance.

Member of the Supervisory Board, Russian Foundation for the Development of Information Technologies (RFRIT).

Member of the General Council, All-Russia public organization “Business Russia”

In 2015, Anna was nominated as a Woman Icon at the APEC Forum “Women as an engine of inclusive growth”.

Since 2018 she represents Russia in the CICA Business Council.

In 2019 received an Award “Business Russia – Business People” nominated as a “Business Lady”.

She has acknowledgments for contribution to the development of SMEs from the Ministry of Economic Development and for public activities from the President of the Russian Federation.

Speaks English and French.